

The A. P. of L. Weekly News Service is a news service and editorial interpretation of news affecting the labor movement in the industrial, legislative, and judicial fields. It is published for the benefit of the labor movement and is not to be used for the purpose of information of kind to the trade movement.

WHOLE NO. 1315

SENATOR HOLT KILLS GUFFY COAL MEASURE

New Law Declares Crew Vessel
Crews Must Be Citizens and Increases Percentage of Citizens for Passenger Vessels—
Stipulates Labor Standards
For Subsidized Ships.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The House of Representatives today passed the Guffey Coal Measure, H. R. 1131, which stipulates that crews of passenger vessels must be citizens and increases the percentage of citizens for passenger vessels. The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships.

The measure was introduced by Senator Guffey of Pennsylvania. It stipulates that crews of passenger vessels must be citizens and increases the percentage of citizens for passenger vessels. The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships.

The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships. It stipulates that crews of passenger vessels must be citizens and increases the percentage of citizens for passenger vessels. The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships.

The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships. It stipulates that crews of passenger vessels must be citizens and increases the percentage of citizens for passenger vessels. The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships.

The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships. It stipulates that crews of passenger vessels must be citizens and increases the percentage of citizens for passenger vessels. The measure also stipulates labor standards for subsidized ships.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

Congress Aims to Attack Strike Breakers

House of Representatives Will Refuse to Refuse Wagner-
Elenberg $400,000,000 Measure
After It Had Passed the Senate.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The House of Representatives today passed the Wagner-Elenberg measure, H. R. 1131, which aims to attack strike breakers. The measure was introduced by Senator Wagner of New York.

The measure was introduced by Senator Wagner of New York. It aims to attack strike breakers and was passed by the House of Representatives today.

The measure was introduced by Senator Wagner of New York. It aims to attack strike breakers and was passed by the House of Representatives today.

The measure was introduced by Senator Wagner of New York. It aims to attack strike breakers and was passed by the House of Representatives today.

The measure was introduced by Senator Wagner of New York. It aims to attack strike breakers and was passed by the House of Representatives today.

The measure was introduced by Senator Wagner of New York. It aims to attack strike breakers and was passed by the House of Representatives today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

Seamen Win Better Working Conditions

New Law Extends 3-Watch
System, Turns Issuance of Discharge Books Over to Government Agents and Improves
Financial Standards.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

Green Tells Communications Commission Broadcasts Should Be Animated by "Sincere De- votion to the Service of Man- kind."

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

The National Labor Relations Board today announced that it will require radio stations to broadcast programs that are animated by a sincere devotion to the service of mankind.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

32 Union Shop Rpts Won by Labor Radio

Chicago "Voice of Labor" Broadcast Secures Vote for 700 Members of U. A. of L. News Service.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Chicago, Ill.—The "Voice of Labor" radio broadcast today secured a vote for 700 members of the U. A. of L. News Service.

The "Voice of Labor" radio broadcast today secured a vote for 700 members of the U. A. of L. News Service.

The "Voice of Labor" radio broadcast today secured a vote for 700 members of the U. A. of L. News Service.

The "Voice of Labor" radio broadcast today secured a vote for 700 members of the U. A. of L. News Service.

The "Voice of Labor" radio broadcast today secured a vote for 700 members of the U. A. of L. News Service.

The "Voice of Labor" radio broadcast today secured a vote for 700 members of the U. A. of L. News Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

Seamen Win Better Working Conditions

New Law Extends 3-Watch
System, Turns Issuance of Dis-
charge Books Over to Government Agents and Improves
Financial Standards.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

Seamen Win Better Working Conditions

New Law Extends 3-Watch
System, Turns Issuance of Dis-
charge Books Over to Government Agents and Improves
Financial Standards.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1936

Seamen Win Better Working Conditions

New Law Extends 3-Watch
System, Turns Issuance of Dis-
charge Books Over to Government Agents and Improves
Financial Standards.

By A. P. of L. News Service.
Washington, D. C.—The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.

The bill passed by the recent session of Congress last night, H. R. 1131, extends the three-watch system for seamen and turns the issuance of discharge books over to government agents. It also improves financial standards.